

Is XM Radio in any FCC violation when broadcasting traffic and weather? If not, then why should the federal gov. stop them. If you (the FCC) a federal jurisdiction governing what is put on TV or on the airwaves, then why are you being told who can do certain things while others are not effected by the same rules? or does lobbyist paying gov. elected officials make the call?Please support the rejection of petition 04-160